The Song of the Camp.

BY BAYARD TAYLOR.

[This poem is founded on a well-known incident "Give as a song," the soldiers cried, The outer trenches guarding. When the heated guns of the camps ailled

> Grew yeary of bombarding. The dark Redan, in silent scoff, Lay, grim and threatening, under ; Add the tawny mouth of the Malakoff

No longer belehed its thunder, There was a pause. The Guardsman said, "We storm the forts to morrow;

Sing while we may, another day Will bring enough of sorrow." They lay along the battery's side, Below the smoking cannon-

Brave hearts from Severn and from Clyde, And from the banks of Shannon. They sang of love, and not of fame-Forgot was Britain's glory';

Each recalled a different name, But all sung " Annie Laurie." Voice after voice caught up the song,

Until its tender passion Rose, like an authem, rich and strong --

Their battle eve confession. Dear girl ; her name he dared not speak

Yet, as the song grew louder, Something upon the soldier's check Washed off the staigs of powder.

Bayond the darkening ocean burned The bloody sunser's embers. While the Crimean valleys learned How English love remembers.

And south sora's eyes are dim. For a singer dumb and gory ; And English Mary mourns for him Who sung of "Annie Laurie." Ah ! soldiers, to your honored rest

Your truth and valor bearing; The bravest are the tenderest-The loving are the daring !

VARIETY. Bur One .- New Bedford has but one whaler

PROPERLY CHRISTENED .- A baby in Milwaukee has been christened " Zero," in honor of the cold Sunday upon which he was born.

CONFIDENCE.-The one needful thing for the perfect enjoyment of love is confidence—same with hash and sausages.

BAD COPY .- A Poughpeeksie paper mentions an infernal meeting by certain clergymen, The word intended was "informal," but the compositor said the copy was bad, and how should be

OLD .- Two Irishmen traveling on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad tract, came to a mile post when one of them said: "Trend aisy, Pat; here lies a man 108 years old—his name was Miles COLDLY .- The Sutter Banner thus coldly treats the offering of an aspiring tyro: "We have gone over it with a four-horse magnifying glass ad found nothing worthy of being put in print. We may be casting a gem in the waste-basket, but we rather guess not. Would IT Nor ?- The Austin (Nevada) Reveille. makes this suggestion: As the spelling-match mania seems to be dying out, would it not be a good idea to get up a series of lying matches? Let the witnesses in the Beacher case challenge an equal number of editors. HARDLY Fir.—A contemporary asks: "What are the street lamps for?" The man who doesn't now what a street lamp is for is hardly fit to sit an editorial chair and mold public opinion. treet lamps are for weary young men to recline gainst as midnight, when they forget the way

THE FIRST QUESTION .- When two Pike county ien are about to make a mule trade, the first sestion asked by the would-be purchaser is, What's his record?" Seller replies, "Three ggers and a couple dozen dashboards." "Here's ar money," and the new owner leads his prop-

Plano-Playing .- An Indianian, describing a orite pisnoiste, said that she " yanked a handout of the centre and slanted 'em at the end, a wiggled around with two fingers, grabbed amother fistful punched right and left, went a spin' down hand over fist, and I tell yer that

IND ENOUGH .- An enterprising reporter who mas to report an execution, asked the pinioned sinal, who was just ready to be " worked off." a would be kind enough " to wriggle his little while he was conscious, so that the reter could form some conception of how long a lifelt that he was being hanged."

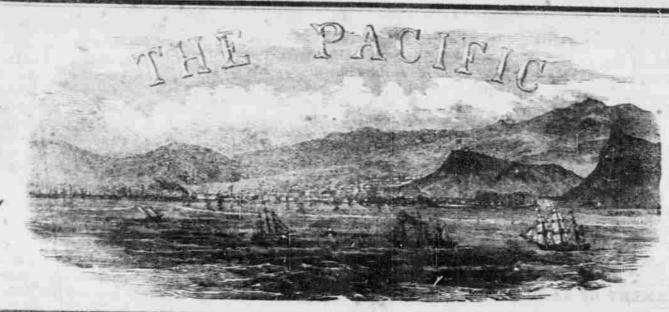

THE BE RELIEVED .- The Reading Times tells at then it may be the work of an imaginareporter. The following is taken verbatim a a Reading clergyman's diary: "April 24th. I fun. at church. Met cats, in the lecture " The astonished reader's mind will be real to know that the seeming levity of the man meant: "Had a funeral at church,"
"Met catechamens in the lecture room."

ILL BUY A HEAP .- " How much to telegraph hicago?" inquired a citizen of African de-t at one of the telegraph offices in Detroit. fly cents," was the reply. "Thunderation, at a fact!" exclaimed the negro. "My ole an's powerful bad off, and she wants her to come along right smart, but I guess I'll to make de mail do. Dat forty-seven cents I'll buy a heap ob Sunday meat."

BT CHILD.—The other day a New York lady tent to pay her respects to one of the latest ar-ivals on the list of babyhood, when the following billoquy took place between her and the little four-pear-old sister of the new comer. "I have come or that baby now," said the lady. "You can't ave it," was the reply. "But I must: I came wer on purpose," urged the visitor. "We can't pare it at all, "persisted the child, "but I'll at a a piece of paper and you can cut out a pat-

No Wonder .- A lady went in a corner gromy the other day, for some trifling thing. The pods wanted were on the very top shelf. The an placed a box on a chair and climbed up to shelf at the evident risk of her limbs. Her seband sat by the stove pinying with a small dog. lady said: "Why don't you make your husband such it?" A look of infinite contempt came into or face as she replied : "My husband! I got wfully sucked in mit dat man. He knows noth-

Ig but to play mit a dog." A Women's Righten.-The following burlesque atences about Women's Rights come from Tasania: "I am here to-day for the purpose of scussing Women's Rights, recussing her wrongs ad cussing the men. I believe the sexes were stated perfectly equal, with the woman a little ss my stars my mother was a woman. 1 not aly maintain these principles, but I maintain a suband besides. What we want is the franchise, d the franchise we are bound to have, if even To have to swim in a sea gore."
